This is the cry from the "Outback"- - - (out-back of Rosd Tree Fox Hunting Club, Rose Tree- - - Saturday, September 21st, 1963- - - just "2" months from the last Eclipse- - - from Sun-up to Sun-down.

Listen to the chant of the "Wallaby" People. "Hold me Wallaby, Buck, while I get some of me "Walle(t) B(ucks)" to spend at the Sixth Annual Country Fair and Registered Horse Show- - - for the benefit of Riddle Memorial Hospital.

So sorry! No Austrailian Entries (Kangaroos) accepted for the Registered Horse Show.

Your editor'r spoof- - - like the Country Fair - - - is all in fun- - - and designed to create the urge to attend at all cost (Oh yes---bring money). Enjoy one of the most pleasant separations you'll ever experience- - - when you and your ever Lovin' "long green" part company.

The 1963 Country Fair Committee: Mrs. Francis (Fanny) Feaster, General Chm.; Mrs. Robt. L. (Beb) Thomson, Jr. Chm.; Mrs. Joe (Barbara) Weaver, Horse Show Chm.; Mrs. Wm. (Helen) Laimbeer, Treasure Trove Coupon Chm.; Mrs. G. S. (Ruby) Maier, Secretary; have been laboring long in the vineyard to produce a bumper crop of "Wine and Rose" Events- - - to please the eyes- - -the ears - - -the palates- - -the minds of central Delaware County residents and their friends.

From the looks of the fruit at this early date- - - the yield in enjoyment and pleasure augurs well for our 1963 Country Fair.

For a bit of nostalgia- - - a little turning back

Down to Earth

Memorial Gifts received from several individuals plus money donated by the following Garden Clubs has enabled The 'Auxiliary Landscaping Committee to give the 'horticultural touch' to the grounds of Riddle Memorial Hospital:

The Country Gardeners

Drexelbrook Garden Club

Home and Garden Group

Junior Providence Garden Club

Twin Creed Gardeners

The Village Gardeners

A $150. award grant by SEARS, ROEBUCK AND COMPANY to Country Gardeners, enabled this organization to purchase 'sugar maples' for the outer drive at Riddle.
